A DANGEROUS PASTIME.

AMUSEMENTS OF AN AUSTRIAN DYNAMITER.

Peers Alarmed over the Attack on Their House—More Turkish Brutality in Armenia—Russia Adding to the Strength of Her Fleet.

LONDON, Oct. 13.—The Austrian police believe that they have captured the man Steinart, of Cracow, Austrian Poland, a dynamite fiend who works destruction merely for the pleasure of it. It is thought that besides the Rosenthal explosion, Steinhart was also guilty of attempting to blow up the statue of St. John of Nepumuk, the patron saint of Bohemia, when the feast of the saint was being celebrated in Reichenberg, and that when the feast of the nativity of the Virgin was being celebrated, he made a similar attempt to blow up the Marien chapel in the suburb of Mafferndof. The explosion at Rosenthal is not now supposed to have had for its object any injury to the Emperor, but to be like the other deeds, a senseless effort to create excitement and destroy property. There was an undoubted intention to ruin the bridge, and thereby arouse a sensation in relation to the delay of the Emperor's train, but there is not the slightest evidence of a purpose to injure the Emperor.

FOR THE SUFFERING JEWS.

If prayer could have any influence on the Czar he would be deeply moved by the supplications that went up yesterday from every Jewish synagogue in Great Britain. The prayer had been specially prepared for the synagogues by the Chief Rabbi. Apart from the prayer it is said that the Jews spent the day in fasting and humiliation for their suffering brethren.

THE PEERS TAKE ALARM.

It is reported that a meeting of several of the most eminent members of the peerage, irrespective of partisan attachment, will shortly be held to take into consideration the declaration of the Liberals at Newcastle in favor of abolishing the House of Lords. None of the peers suppose that Mr. Gladstone would have anything to do with the movement for the abolition of the upper House, but it is apprehended in regard to this and other matters that the Liberal party has got beyond his control. The older peers and some of the younger, clearly see the evils that have tended to sap the influence of the House of Lords, and especially the absenteeism which is now the rule, but one of the young peers, an earl, is quoted as giving an opinion that between compulsory attendance and the abolition of the House most of the lords would prefer to accept abolition.

THE KAISER AND THE JEWS.

A Berlin dispatch says the Kaiser has expressed himself as deeply offended by the anti-Jewish agitation which the bestowal of an order on a Jew living at Bielefeld has aroused. In reply to the representations sent through Chancellor Caprivi, that the man had a bad character, the Kaiser has replied briefly and pointedly, rebuking the anti-Jewish prejudice that prompted the action.

TURKISH OUTRAGES IN ARMENIA.

From Constantinople comes an account of more outrages on the Christian Armenians. The Turks, who recently carried off a number of Armenian maidens, were permitted by the authorities to retain them, notwithstanding the protests of their parents, upon the grounds that the girls had become converts to Mohammedanism. As no one had a chance to see the girls and ascertain whether the alleged conversion had any basis of truth, the decision is so maifestly unjust that it has created great alarm throughout Armenia. That the alarm was justified is proven by the fact that the abduction and alleged conversion of Armenian girls is now becoming an established Turkish industry.

RUSSIA INCREASING HER FLEET.

A St. Petersburg dispatch says that Russia is pressing on with the increase of her navy. An ironclad, the Navarin, rather a significant name for Turkey, was launched on Thursday last, and a half-armed gun boat, the Otiajny, was also launched on the same day. A gunboat now about completed will soon follow, and a fleet of torpedo cruisers have been ordered. The last mentioned order has been given since the Chilian war, and is undoubtedly based on the proficiency of torpedo cruisers in that conflict. Great activity in naval shipbuilding also prevails in the Black Sea, where Russia already has a formidable fleet.

PARNELL'S DEATH.

The Late Leader's Colleagues Issue a Manifesto.

LONDON, Oct. 12.—Towards the close of the meeting of Parnell's colleagues to-night it was decided to issue a manifesto appealing to the Irish people to maintain the fight for independence. At midnight they gave the following manifesto to the reporters: "Ireland has lost her leader, but the cause of Ireland's freedom remains. We have a duty to perform towards the living and the dead. That duty is to maintain, erect and unsullied, the flag of independence. You, the people of Ireland, gave into the hands of Charles Stewart Parnell and his Parliamentary colleagues the charge of your political interests and the honor and safety of your cause. In an unfortunate hour a majority of the Irish representatives, at the bidding of an English statesman, broke from our ranks, abandoned the flag of independence and opposition, and ranged themselves as followers and satellites of a British statesman. We who address you refused to become parties to this treason, and relying on the national convictions, maintained intact our allegiance to an independent party of Ireland, convinced that our people would justify and support us. The great leader is dead; but the cause lives, and relying on your devotion to Irish nationality, we propose to carry on the struggle until the principles for which he lived and died have triumphed, and a national unity has been restored around a Parliamentary party pledged to work for Ireland under the flag of independent opposition and absolutely not under the control of any foreign power. This is our resolution. Its enforcement depends upon you. It involves sacrifices and struggles. We call on you to remain true to our principle that we are representatives and instruments of the people. We have resolved to call together a convention of representative Irishmen to discuss together the means by which we can best carry out the policy and programme which he bequeathed us in dying. To our ranks we shall welcome all honest men who believe that the political affairs of Ireland should be controlled and directed by the representatives of the Irish people and by them alone. But with the men immediately responsible for the disruption of the national party, who, in obedience to foreign dictation, have loaded with calumny and hounded to death the foremost man of our race, we can have no fellowship, and in their guidance Ireland can have no safety. Between them and the man who stood true to the cause of national independence, Ireland must choose on the threshold of the tomb of the leader whom we mourn." This manifesto was signed by 28 out of 31 of Parnell's colleagues. W. A. MacDonald, Col. Nolan and James Bally were absent.

MR. A. R. MILNE,

Collector of H. M. Customs for the Port of Victoria.

Alexander Roland Milne, present Collector of Her Majesty's Customs for the port of Victoria, was born in Morayshire, Scotland, on the 20th of December, 1839. He was educated at Marshall College, Aberdeen. In 1855 his parents came to Canada, settling in Ontario, and the Milne family was from that date identified with Canada. Mercantile pursuits engaged the attention of the subject of this sketch until the year 1864, when he came to British Columbia, and in 1864 went to Cariboo, at that time the objective point of thousands who sought for the yellow gold. His fortunes in the mines were various, and in 1874 he came to Victoria and entered the service of the Canadian Customs. Here promotions came rapidly as the result of application and sterling business habits; in 1885 he was appointed appraiser of the port, and in 1887 was made one of the Board of Dominion Appraisers at Ottawa. In 1889 a vacancy occurred in the collectorship, and Mr. Milne was appointed to fill the position, being sworn in in 1890. Since then his courteous and polite manner has won for him the warm friendship of all with whom he comes in contact. Punctilious in business, and possessed of rare executive ability, he discharges his onerous duties in a ready way, and despite the cares and worries of his position always has time for a pleasant word to those who need his advice. Ever ready to direct the stranger and to help the needy, Collector Milne counts his friends by scores. He is one of those officials who do not assert to the public the importance of their position, although in the discharge of his duties he knows no friends.

Mr. Milne has always taken front rank in societies. He was twice Grand Master of the Masons of British Columbia, in 1887-'88, and is now Grand Prior for the Province of the Knights Templar of British Columbia. He is also a member of the I.O.O.F., Knights of Pythias, United Workmen and Legion of Honor.

Since the Behring Sea controversy has been so prominently before the public, Mr. Milne has been an indefatigable worker for Canada's and Victoria's interests. Exhaustive reports on the matter have been laid before the Ottawa authorities by him, and in many ways has he been to the front in placing the question in the right light before the powers that be. An able and entertaining writer, his pen has always been ready to aid the side of right.

Although not a politician, and seldom heard on the public platform, Mr. Milne is a most eloquent and effective speaker, having that rare power of magnetism which enables the orator to make his hearers feel and believe what they hear. Were it not that his position forbids it, there is no doubt but what his attainments would have ere this made him a leader among men in public life.

Careful investments and saving habits in youth have brought their sure result, and Mr. Milne is now one of the solid men, financially, of the city, his possessions being mainly business blocks and residential realty. Heart and soul he is with Victoria and her advancement, and his wealth is placed in this city, where it does good for the city as well as for himself.

His many friends trust that Collector Milne will long fill his present place.

After diphtheria, scarlet fever, pneumonia, or any other severe illness, there is no better tonic than Hood's Sarsaparilla.

CHAPLEAU BLOCKS CABINET RECONSTRUCTION.

Petition on Behalf of a B.C. Indian Murderer—The Unsettled Ontario Accounts—A Bribe for Quebec West—The Queen's Printership.

OTTAWA, Oct. 13.—Lord Stanley has received a petition praying for the commutation of the death sentence passed on an Indian at the Clinton Falls assizes, as the murderer of a Chinaman. According to the statement of the doomed man, the murder took place 27 years ago. Other evidence goes to show that it is only 20 years since the deed was done. He was sentenced to be hanged on the 29th October. Owing to the length of time since the murder was committed, probably his Excellency will commute the sentence to one for imprisonment for life.

Voting on the repeal of the Scott Act takes place in Drummond County, Quebec on the 27th November.

The Department of Justice reports against granting any of the claim of $19,000 put in by Bremner, the half-breed, for loss of furs during the rebellion.

Mr. Dawson, of Dawson & Brothers of Montreal, will likely be Queen's printer, vice Chamberlain.

Hon. O. Mowat, Premier of Ontario, and Hon. A. M. Ross, ex-Treasurer of the Province, were here to-day interviewing the Government with a view of arranging for arbitrators to sit on the unsettled accounts between the Province and the Dominion. They had a long conference with Thompson and Foster.

The Cabinet is sitting to-day, and will sit again to-morrow. Nothing can be done with reconstruction until Chapleau is satisfied.

Last session the Government refused to give anything in connection with the landslide at Quebec. Now an Order-in-Council has been passed for $1000. This is due to the approaching election in Quebec West, which was Thomas McGreevy's constituency.

TOOK LAUDANUM.

The Mate of the Rothsay Bay Suicides at Westminster.

NEW WESTMINSTER, Oct. 13.—Geo. Milne, first mate of the ship Rothsay Bay, died last midnight from an overdose of laudanum. He evidently committed suicide. He had been drinking heavily the day before, was despondent and said something to one of the sailors about suicide. He was heard fumbling at the locker about 8:30, and an hour later was found on the deck in a deathly stupor. Doctors were summoned and did all in their power, but Milne sank and died about 12 o'clock. The captain says Milne was just about to get a divorce from his wife, and domestic infelicity had a good deal to do with the case. An inquest was opened this morning and is now in progress.

Killed by an Explosion.

ENSLEY CITY, Ala., Oct. 13.—A car fixed up as a sleeping car for laborers was standing on a side track here last night when the Georgia Pacific express train passed through. In the car were six negroes and some blasting powder, which they had been using at their work. A spark from the passing locomotive fell into the car among the powder, which exploded with terrific force, shattering the car and mangling all the negroes but one, who escaped with a slight burn. Four of the injured have since died.

A U. S. Warship Missing.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—Some anxiety is expressed at the Navy Department for the safety of the U.S. ship Atlanta, sent from New York to the assistance of the Dispatch at Assateague Shoals, Va. Nothing has been heard from her since her departure. The Yantic, which left New York about the same time, is reported as having arrived at Assateague in several telegrams received from there, but no mention is made of the Atlanta.

The Parnellites' Manifesto.

DUBLIN, Oct. 13.—The Freeman's Journal in commenting on the manifesto issued by the Parnellites, bitterly deplores their manifest intention to nurture the spirit of faction. "Unending strife," says the Journal, "is the prospect they place before the country. The programme thus offered is the greatest act of cruel senseless treachery ever perpetrated upon the Irish nation."

A Terible Cyclone.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 13—The British ship Arctic Stream, arrived last night from Swansea, with a cargo of coal. Captain Bowen reports that when at 17 north in the Pacific the ship was struck by a terrific cyclone that lasted 36 hours. Nearly all the sails were blown away, and the ship thrown on her beam ends. Everything movable was swept from the decks, but the ship was not damaged.

Vessel and Cargo Lost.

LONDON, Oct. 13.—The schooner Kitsap, from Port Ludlow, Wash., for Shanghai, has stranded. The vessel and cargo are a total loss. The crew were saved.

Will Contest the Will.

PARIS, Oct. 13.—The daughters of the late General Boulanger have retained counsel and will contest four clauses of their father's will.

Shot a Police Officer.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 13.—Policeman J. Clifford was shot and dangerously wounded this morning by Frank Moore alias Rutherford, an ex-convict. Sergeant Price had been notified that two suspicious characters were lurking in the shadow of steamers near 22nd and Bartlett streets, where the shooting occurred. He detailed Clifford and another policeman to investigate the report. Clifford found Moore hiding in a dark place and at the same instant Moore ran away closely pursued by the policeman. Clifford was gaining on Moore rapidly when the latter turned abruptly and discharged six chambers of his revolver at him. Five of the bullets passed through Clifford's clothes about the breast and one lodged in his chest. Clifford was taken to his home. His wound is considered dangerous. Moore was badly beaten by the other policeman and taken to the city prison on a charge of assault to murder.

A Montana Racket.

LONDON, Oct. 11.—The correspondent of the New York Herald sends the following telegram: A huge American enterprise to be launched in the coming week on the London market is the Sapphire and Ruby company of Montana, which will ask the public for $2,252,000, on the declaration that the company will secure 4000 acres in Montana, on the right bank of the Missouri river, about twelve miles northeast of Helena. The prospectus says: "On the lands acquired by the company, careful prospecting has demonstrated the existence of sapphires and rubies, chiefly the former, in quantities unprecedented in the history of gem discovery. Precious stones are found on the bedrock of an ancient river channel, nowadays an elevated terrace skirted by the Missouri river, and covered by a deposit of gravel." It is asserted that 35,000 carats of sapphires and rubies, now in London, were procured during a trial run of the machine separator, which was put in to separate the gems from gravel. The prospectus gives an official report from Edward W. Streeter, the gem expert, in which he says: "Excepting only two South American diamond fields, I consider the sapphire and ruby mines of Montana to be the most important discovery of modern times." The language of the prospectus is bound to create a sensation, and the announcement that all the company has to do is to set the machine to work on the gravel to have the rubies and sapphires separated from the rubbish has already set mining experts buzzing in a lively way.

Inspiration of the Scriptures.

PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 12.—Rev. Dr. Green, senior professor of theology at the seminary and moderator of the last general assembly, who is perhaps the most profound Biblical student opposed to a revision of the confession of faith, preached yesterday before the college students and in the course of his sermon, after reviewing his well known argument for verbal inspiration of the Scriptures, said: "The question is as to the general trustworthiness of the Bible. Can we accept the Old Testament at all, if it is full of false statements in historical facts, which are not identical, but essential? If the stories of the miracles are emanations of the heated Oriental brain, and prophets were the directors of the people; if human history contained in the Bible is untrue, can we accept as true statements for which it is the only authority concerning God? This is the point which we are fighting, not as to mere verbal inaccuracies, but as to the broad truthfulness and trustworthiness of the Bible against the destructive criticism which throws wide open the gate which would lead us down into self-seeking rationalism."

The Uruguay Revolt.

LONDON, Oct. 13.—A dispatch from Montevideo, Uruguay, states that the revolutionists who on Sunday last attempted to create a disturbance in that city failed in their designs. Those who engaged in the tumult were members of a revolutionary club. In firing upon the loyal troops they did so with the expectation that the artillery would come to their aid. They were disappointed, the gunners refusing to revolt. The ringleaders have been placed under arrest, and it is expected they will be summarily punished. During the firing six persons were killed and seven wounded. There are 52 persons now in the hands of the authorities. The disturbance has been suppressed very quietly, and there is no apprehension of further trouble.

NANAIMO NEWS.

A Butcher's Departure—A Dangerous Blast—Crazy Chinaman.

NANAIMO, Oct. 13.—W. D. Deeble, who has been carrying on the business of a butcher in this city for the past three years, left the city last week on a visit, as he stated, to Seattle. It has now turned out that he is very comfortable where he is and that he has no intention of returning. It is stated here that he must have taken four or five thousand dollars with him belonging to Mr. Hemans, to whom he lately sold the business, and since that time has been managing it for him. Just how much is short in the accounts will not be ascertained until the books are gone through. Mr. J. Wilson, the cattle dealer, is said to be a large creditor.

NARROW ESCAPE.

Yesterday afternoon a blast from the excavation for the foundation of Green's block was set off and the blast appeared to be unusually strong. A piece of rock from the flying debris went through the window of Mr. J. H. Cooking's residence, striking his little daughter Mildred on the head and inflicting a slight scalp wound. Luckily the distance was so great that the force of the rock was well spent or the injury might have been serious.

GONE CRAZY.

One of the Chinamen employed at the Wellington collieries went out of his mind last night and for a time made things lively for his companions until one of the special constables was called in to take charge of him. He was taken down to Victoria this morning, where he will be looked after by his friends. He was perfectly quiet this morning and gave his conductor no trouble.

LITTLE HAPPENINGS.

The United Brotherhood of Carpenters have decided to boycott the Chinese sugar.

COL. H. S. OLCOTT.

The President of the Theosophical Society and Friend of Mme. Blavatsky.

Col. Henry S. Olcott is an American who has lived abroad for many years. He is President of the Theosophical Society and is in a very scornful mood regarding the excitement over theosophy coming from Mrs. Besant's conversion in England to the esoteric doctrine. Col. Olcott is of opinion that the English do not understand theosophy, and his only reason for delivering an address there was to vindicate the memory of his late friend, Mme. Blavatsky, who was a performer of miracles. Col. Olcott has been many years in India, whither he will proceed via Yoko hama.

Moncure D. Conway in the October number of the Arena, exposes the tricks of the Theosophists. He tells how he learned of Madame Blavatsky's wonderful performances as priestess of the cult after she left England and went to India, and the conversion to her views of such distinguished men as A. P. Sinnett, editor of the Pioneer of India, and Allan Hume, formerly connected with the Government of India. Mr. Sinnett, indeed, visited London, and gave drawing-room lectures on theosophy. He expatiated on the wonders performed by Madame Blavatsky with the aid of certain Mahatmas, "who by secret knowledge had gained power of prolonging existence and of appearing in their "astral" forms at vast distances from their retreat in the Himalayas. Mr. Conway was then contemplating a journey round the world and he asked Mr. Sinnett, in private conversation, whether he could make a pilgrimage to the abode of these mighty Mahatmas and converse with them. Mr. Sinnett said it was an impossibility to converse in an ordinary way with the wonderful species, for reasons which would take too long to explain, and Mr. Conway was kept in ignorance as to this and other matters till he reached India. In Australia he found a strange union of the Spiritualists and the Secularists for the promotion of Theosophy, and Madame Blavatsky and Colonel Olcott were mentioned as grand personages—she a countess, he a famous warrior of the United States army. The marvels they wrought were of English size in Australia, but on the approach to India they loomed up in Oriental magnitude. Madame had only to walk in any garden to pick up brooches from flowers and find rupees at will, like the fabled tree that yielded whatever was asked of it.

At the headquarters of Theosophy at Adyar, Mr. Conway found Madame Blavatsky living in luxurious quarters. It was a splendid country establishment, and the visitor at once felt that too much had been said of the sacrifices made by the New York journalist and the medium in founding the new religion. While awaiting Madame's appearance, Mr. Conway was approached by a young Hindu, "dreamy and picturesque," who said Madame Blavatsky would soon come. Next there came a youth, who almost seemed an apparition. He proved to be a "lay chela," and his snowy garment gave a saintly look to his delicate beauty. He sweetly apologized for not taking Mr. Conway's proffered hand, saying he was forbidden by his "guru" (Mahatma) to shake hands, this being one of the conditions of his further development. Madame Blavatsky gave the visitor a cordial welcome. She regretted Col. Olcott's absence, but made up for it by introducing to Mr. Conway Norendnath, Sen., editor of the Indian Mirror, and relative of the Brahmo apostle, Keshub Chunder, Sen., W. T. Brown, an elevated young Scotchman, and Dr. Hartmann, of Colorado. All the Hindus spoke good English. These young men, the Hindus especially, were eager to relate their marvellous experiences in receiving from the distant Mahatmas immediate answers to their letters. This was Mr. Conway's opportunity. As the letters were alleged to be placed "in the shrine," Mr. Conway at once proposed to write a note, referring to some matter known to himself alone, in order to carry home evidence of the existence and knowledge of the Mahatmas. "What a pity!" broke in Madame Blavatsky, who had not participated in the conversation, "only three days ago I was told by my Guru that the shrine must not be used for letters any more." Mr. Conway's reply was that this was his luck; he had been trying to test alleged phenomena for 30 years or more, and he always happened to be either too late or too early. The young Hindus had eagerly approved of the visitor's proposal to test the Mahatma, and had evidently heard nothing of the prohibition. Madame Blavatsky betrayed no embarrassment, and presently rose and invited Mr. Conway to accompany her, and led him to a secluded room, where she shut the door, lighted a cigarette for herself, and offered one to her visitor. Then she sat serenely awaiting his next move. Mr. Conway told her he had a sincere purpose in coming. Some of his friends were deeply interested in Theosophy. He had a congregation in London, and they were not afraid to recognise new facts if verified. "Now," he said, "what do these rumors mean? I hear of your lifting teapots from beneath your chair, summoning love jewels, conversing with Mahatmas thousand miles away." Your questions shall be answered," said Madame Blavatski. "You are a public teacher, and ought to know the truth. It is glamor; people think they see what they do not see. That is the whole of it." This was indeed a sagacious reply. Forewarned that so shrewd an investigator as Mr. Conway was coming Madame received from her Guru a convenient prohibition against further use of the shrine as a postoffice; and "no by one clever stroke she altogether forestalled an inconvenient investigation. Obstruction to experiments or evasion would have been such confession as the investigator could use. This secret confession, which could be repudiated at will, raised the siege at once, and prevented an exposure that would have awakened the skepticism of the simple-hearted Hindus around her.

Mr. Conway's investigations clearly result in showing that, despite her high pretensions, Madame Blavatsky was a fraud of the first water. The most curious thing about the turbaned spiritualism is its development of the Koothoomi myth. Sir W. W. Hunter, gazetteer general of India, and other Orientalists, declare the name of this alleged Mahatma, or Rabat, to be without analogies in any Hindu tongue, ancient or modern. Mr. Conway was assured on good authority that the name was originally "Cotthume" and a mere mixture of Olcott and Hume. Madame Blavatsky's principal adherents. The story told by one of the Madame's agents, who has repented of the impostures in which he participated, is that "a pasteboard doll, with half-shrouded head, superimposed on the shoulders of the devotee, orientally draped, was moved about in the dusk at Adyar when an 'astral' apparition was necessary."

Discussing the future of Theosophy, Mr. Conway reaches the conclusion that its age of miracles has passed, and is more likely to be repudiated than renewed. It is assumed that Colonel Olcott will continue the propaganda, which, on the negative side, seems to aim at combining all oriental religions against Christianity. In his work on "Theosophy and Buddhism," Olcott says he "has not any belief in, or connection with, Christianity in any form whatever." He will endeavor to receive Oriental philosophies and to some extent the mythologies. "It is not indeed a literal restoration; but no esoteric interpretation can make it very different from an attempt to rationalize for Europeans ancient Druidism, or for Americans Aztec fables and symbolism." The Rajahs, who are survivals from primitive religions and social customs, have given Olcott some countenance, but young India is not going that way. English freedom and English colleges have emancipated youths from the thraldom of idolatry and mythology. There is, in Mr. Conway's opinion, a field for the Theosophists in Ceylon. Colonel Olcott might easily effect a fruitful alliance between Theosophy and Buddhism, and Ceylon is now the centre of that religion. Theosophy has hitherto shown an affection for titles in India and London. It remains to be seen whether it is willing to "take its place beside Buddha under his Bo tree, and share the lowliness of his followers. This may be rather hard after the rapid success of Theosophy in India, where in four years from its formation (1879) it counted 77 flourishing branches, but these are withering away under the Blavatsky scandals, and if Theosophy is to live it must 'take refuge in Buddha!'"

Seattle to New Westminster.

SEATTLE, Oct. 13.—The last spike on the Seattle & Montana road was driven at 1 o'clock yesterday, two miles north of Stillaguamish river. A company of officials, including Superintendent Neff, rode down from Fairhaven on a train that arrived yesterday. They had to walk a mile, but another train was awaiting them and brought them into Boulevard. Engineer Watson went back this morning on a special to be present at the driving of the last spike. There were no ceremonies attending the occasion, but a message was received at the Great Northern headquarters to the effect that Engineer Watson had made a short speech which was received with cheers by the workmen, after which he assisted in driving the last big nail. There are twenty miles of ballasting yet to be laid before the road will be completed and ready for operation. This ballasting will be completed in about two weeks, when regular trains will be run. There are also 200 feet of track to be laid in the city of Seattle yet. This will be done within the next week. It will then be possible to unload a cargo of merchandise from a ship at Yesler's wharf and distribute it along the road in all the towns between here and New Westminster, inclusive. The Seattle & Montana is eighty-seven and one-half miles in length and runs from the Yesler wharf in this city to Jannau's prairie, Skagit county, where it is met by its extension, the Fairhaven & Southern, which runs direct to New Westminster, B. C. Both of these roads are the property of the transcontinental line called the Great Northern, and otherwise known as "Jim Hill's" road.

A QUARTER OF A CENTURY AGO

There settled in Baker county, Oregon, near what is now Baker City, a man who has since become identified with the resources and development of that country. This man is no other than Mr. John Stewart, one of the wealthiest and most influential citizens in the county. In a recent letter he says: "I had been suffering from pains in my back and general kidney complaint for some time, and had used many remedies without any but temporary relief. The pains in my back had become so severe that I was prevented from attending to my work and could not move about without the use of a cane. Hearing through a friend, of the wonderful cures effected by Oregon Kidney Tea, I was induced to try a box, and from that very first dose I found instant relief, and before using half the contents of the box the pains in my back entirely disappeared. I have every faith in the virtues of the Oregon Kidney Tea, and can conscientiously recommend it to my friends. I would not be without it for anything."

Oregon Kidney Tea cures backache, incontinence of urine, brick dust sediment, burning or painful sensation while urinating, and all affections of the kidney or urinary organs of either sex.

And whereas the case is now pending, trial in the Supreme Court of British Columbia, all parties are warned not to purchase any land contained in the above-named grants, as they were issued unlawfully, without any Statute, or Act of the Legislature, or any consideration in money.

And further, that I am owner of Lot No. 1002, situated on English Bay, and within the above-named grant, as shown by the District Registrar; and all parties are warned not to purchase or negotiate for any of the above-named Lot No. 1002.

THE FIRE DEPARTMENT.

There have been charges somewhat freely made in the columns of the Colonist that the city fire department does not effectively deal with fires. It is alleged that in the recent cases of the telephone office and Spencer's Arcade in particular there was bad mismanagement. These are serious charges, and the citizens generally are interested in knowing their truth or falsity. Doubtless the people who have made the statements will be ready for an official investigation and will be prepared to bring forth evidence to support them. If the fire department is inefficient, as alleged, it is advisable to have its particular weakness pointed out, so that a remedy may be applied. Let an investigation be held, and then if those who have been so freely attacking the department are in earnest they will come forward and give their evidence. If they refuse to appear it will be known that their attacks were the resultof private spleen. We may say that in regard to one matter no investigation is needed. The equipment of the department would be very much improved by the addition of a chemical engine, a machine that would certainly be instrumental in preventing the destruction of much valuable property.

RECIPROCITY.

Sir John Macdonald and his colleagues were sincere, says the Colonist, in making their celebrated announcement last winter that they were going to negotiate for reciprocity with the States. Quite so. There was no need to defend their sincerity in regard to the opening of the negotiations; where their insincerity lay was in their attempt to create the impression that the negotiations had a chance of being successful. In that they were about as sincere as a man would be who should declare his intention to walk across a certain stream, though he knew there was neither bridge nor ford to permit of his passage. Sir John was quite aware when he made his grand flourish that the sort of reciprocity he was going to offer would not be acceptable to the Washington authorities, or if not aware of the fact at that time he must have learned it from Secretary Blaine's letter to Congressman Baker. Sir John's purpose was simply to hoodwink the electors, whom he knew to be in favor of reciprocity, and no amount of Colonistic quibbling can hide the fact. In short, the Government's appeal to the people last March was made under false pretences, as they knew, no doubt, that the exposure of their maladministration was at hand.

A STRANGE CHARGE.

In the petition against the return of Sir Richard Cartwright in South Oxford the following charge is advanced: "That Sir Richard John Cartwright was by himself, his agents and others, a party to a corrupt agreement between Hon. Wilfred Laurier and the General Manager of the Grand Trunk railway whereby in consideration of promises of grants of money and other favors made by Cartwright and Laurier the General Manager of the Grand Trunk railway undertook to intimidate and coerce the employees of the Grand Trunk railway to vote for the said Cartwright and Laurier and their candidates, and the employees of the Grand Trunk railway in West and East York, the City of London, North Victoria, South Victoria, North Simcoe and East Hastings were intimidated and coerced into voting for the candidates of the Reform party," etc. Sir Richard's counsel moved that the clause be struck out of the petition on the ground that it was impertinent and scandalous; that it was merely a piece of gossip which at the late elections went the rounds of the Conservative press, and that it was a gross and foundationless slander against the respondents. Judge Robertson held that the charge was made in proper and legal form and must go on to trial, and that if the petitioner could furnish evidence to prove that and other charges, to the effect that Sir Richard had furnished funds for corrupt use in the elections generally, the respondent would be unseated, although the allegations did not relate to his individual election in South Oxford. This ruling would seem to considerably widen the ground on which proceedings against a member may be taken. We observe that some of the Tory papers report Judge Robertson as having said "that such a serious charge having been made in a legal form, the respondent was entitled to and should take the proper remedy to disprove it if innocent." That is certainly a strange ruling to put in the mouth of a judge. The burden of proof is commonly held to lie with the accuser.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

London Spectator:—With free trade and the new commercial route to the east, the Dominion would become the emporium of the new world.

The manifesto of the Parnellite faction on the occasion of their leader's death is not a prairewosthy document. It would surely have been better for the Home Rule cause to have dropped their antagonism, and endeavored to find an opportunity of re-uniting with their estranged brethren. There is good reason to hope, however, that the manifesto will find favor with only a few of the extreme factionists.

THE TELEPHONE OFFICE FIRE.

TO THE EDITOR:—On the night of the fire in the telephone office, Chief Deasy was in my restaurant in the building adjoining the telephone office. He ran out when the night operator passed the restaurant calling out "fire." This occurred before the alarm was turned in.

F. W. GARLAND,
Proprietor Balmoral restaurant.

TO THE EDITOR:—We were with Chief Deasy on the evening of the telephone office fire. A man ran past the Balmoral restaurant yelling "fire." The chief immediately ran to the telephone office and when the truck arrived the chief ordered two chemical extinguishers in the building. The fire was put out with extinguishers and the chief was in the cupola where the fire started until it was completely out. Not one drop of water from the large hose was turned on the fire. The Colonist reporter, Mr. Gibbons, should tell the truth and write over his own signature instead of fooling with "Hose".

FRANK LEROY,
DAVID A. HENRY,
DAN MCDOUGALL.

TO THE EDITOR:—Two minutes after the alarm was turned in we carried extinguishers into the telephone office. The chief said he wanted no water other than the chemical. He was with us in the blazing cupola until the fire was extinguished. No water from the large hose was turned on the fire and no water reached Trounce avenue. Everyone says the fire was the best stopped and quickest worked fire ever seen in Victoria. Mr. Gibbons is paid to tell the truth through the newspaper and should not make false statements just because your paper gives credit to those deserving it.

FRANK LEROY,
H. MURRAY.

THE CHINA RIOTS.

Further Particulars of the Outbreak at Ichang—Pirates at Work.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 11.—The Pacific Mail steamer City of Pekin arrived in port yesterday, bringing advices from Hong Kong to September 17th, and from Yokohama to the 24th. The North China Mail gives the following additional particulars of the last outbreak at Ichang, the 2nd ult. A child was sent to a convent, and then an outcry arose that it had been stolen. A mob collected, and the Catholic and Protestant churches were burned and all foreign property destroyed. The Chinese authorities then interfered and the rioting ceased. Several Franciscan sisters and one of the fathers were badly hurt. There is a hitch in the settlement of compensation for the destruction of Wuhu, and the fresh outbreak at Ichang will strengthen the position taken by the foreign powers, who seem determined to insist on the overthrow of Hunan and the suppression of anti-foreign literature. The behaviour of the Chinese Government is becoming more and more manifest. The discontent of the Hunan soldiers, who have been disbanded for financial reasons, is the chief cause of uneasiness. A native pastor writes to the North China News:

"Soon after the riot I asked our mission's Chinese deacon there for details, and his answer, which was mostly extracts from his journal, was in substance as follows: From beginning to end, in the order of time, the riot was owing: First, to the arrival of the kidnappers, several boys being lost; second, to two Roman Catholic sisters laying their hands on the diseased head of a boy, the boy getting frightened and ballooing, and his mother and neighbors believing that they were some of the kidnappers; third, to the lack of judgment on the part of the mandarins; fourth, to the Roman Catholics not having competent Chinese men to explain matters; fifth, to the characters of three Kolao Hui men, who took advantage of the excitement to spur the people on, leading them into the mission gate. Then it was that the burning, destroying and looting began. As to the Kolao Hui people, their idea was to stir up a quarrel between China and foreign countries that they might have an opportunity to enter the soldiery and make a living."

The correspondent of the North China News says the chief cause of the riots in Wuhu was the discharge of soldiers by the Peking Government on account of the deficit in the treasury. The soldiers thought that by getting China in collision with the foreign nations their services might again be required. Admiral Belknap has ordered the United States men-of-war, Alliance and Palos, to Shanghai, in consequence of the rioting in Ichang. The Alliance came from Chefoo and the Palos from Foo Chow. The News of September 5th says that there was no warning of the trouble at Ichang, which implies that the attack was premeditated, and fixed for a certain day.

ATTACKED BY PIRATES.

The Haiphong Courier publishes the following account of an attack by pirates, August 21st: Shortly before 7 o'clock in the morning, Garde Principal Leveeq, of the Dongson post, in the district of Dongtrieu, left the temple, where a detachment of civil guard was posted, to go to the coal mines to superintend the installation of a new post. When within a short distance he was attacked by a band of about 200 Chinese and Annamese pirates. At the first discharge by the pirates, Leveeq fell, mortally wounded. The militiamen returned the fire, but the pirates were so well ambushed as to be almost invisible, and the men of the civil guard were decimated. Besides Leveeq seven were killed and seven wounded, and the detachment was forced to retreat. The pirates cut off the head of Leveeq and of one of the others, and took the arms and ammunition of the dead. The mandarin of Doanrieu, who was a little in the rear with Garde Principal Simon, came up and reformed the detachment, whereupon the pirates fled. It is thought the peasants living in the neighborhood were in collusion with the pirates, as none put in an appearance when the attack was made.

The purchase of all private railways in Japan by the government has been definitely agreed upon by the cabinet. The plan decided upon for meeting the heavy outlay is a public loan of $10,000,000 at 5 per cent. interest. The government will, upon shareholders of any railway company unanimously resolving to sell, be prepared to give the amount of full-paid up capital of such company for the purchase of its railway, loan bonds being issued for such amount.

The Japan Gazette says: There have recently come to light particulars of an illicit coinage of Keicho Oban and Koban (Japanese old gold coins) on an unprecedented scale. According to the Kokumin Soy, a merchant and second-hand jewelry dealer residing at Okazaki, Buyomachi Awa province, for four years carried on his illicit manufacture of these old gold coins before the fraud was detected. He was arrested in June last in Kobe and is now undergoing his preliminary examination at the Kobe local court, but the court proceedings are being conducted with such absolute secrecy that little can be learned of the case. It is stated that the man had 37 accomplices, of whom 18 are already under arrest.

Business was light at the city police court this morning. Two drunks were fined $5 each. One party charged with assault was ordered to pay $5 and $2 costs. A man for refusing to pay a fare on the street cars was fined $2 and $2 costs. This ended the session.

Tramps at Work.

It is stated that several houses have been broken into lately along the Yale road of Westminster by tramps, it is supposed. In no case have the nocturnal visitors succeeded in obtaining plunder, the farmers as a rule being awakened in time to repel the invasion with shotgun or rifle.

Sale of Work.

The Ladies' Aid of the First Presbyterian Church will hold their annual sale of work to-morrow, commencing at 2 o'clock. A hall full of pretty and useful articles will be offered for sale during the afternoon. Admission is only 10 cents so that all can attend. Tea will be served between 6 and 7 o'clock p.m.

Lecture by Mr. Shakespeare.

To-morrow evening in the Gorge Road Methodist Church, Mr. Noah Shakespeare will deliver a lecture on the "Passion of Our Lord." The discourse will be illustrated by stereopticon views, and interspersed with vocal and instrumental music by the choir. The proceeds of the entertainment will be devoted to the church building fund.

Bishops in Council.

The Provincial council of the Catholic Episcopal province of Oregon, embracing Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana, British Columbia and Alaska, meets at Portland next week, opening Sunday 18th and extending through the following week. His Lordship Bishop Lemmens leaves Victoria for Portland on Thursday evening to attend this important gathering.

Listened to Reason.

The Indians of the Saanich district have taken good advice and decided to retain their present chief, rather than proceed to the extreme measure of deposing him. An unusually large number of Indians met at Saanich on Sunday and listened to an address from Bishop Lemmens who spoke to them of the necessity of being moderate in all their actions. The result was that the Indians took his advice as before stated.

Drowned at the Pass.

One of the best known steamboat men on the coast, Robert Turnbull, has been found drowned at Plumper's Pass. "Bob" was for a long time in the C.P.N. Co.'s employ, having been mate on several steamers. Latterly he has been working on shore, and his business often took him to the islands in the straits. It is presumed that he fell over a cliff into the sea and was drowned. His remains will be interred here.

Mr. McNamee's Creditors.

At the last session of the Provincial Legislature a vote of money was passed to Mr. McNamee in connection with the work on the dry dock, but before the amount was to be handed over to him, it was stipulated that the demands of his local creditors were first to be paid. The money was given over in trust to outside parties till this was done, but no official intimation has ever been given to those "local creditors" as to where they are to apply for payment. Some of them have been paid, others have not. They want to know why.

Serenaded.

The Victoria Athletic Club band, accompanied by about 30 members of the club, turned out last evening to serenade Mr. P. J. Davies and bride, who arrived home from San Francisco on Saturday. Mr. Davies has been an energetic member of the club for five years, for two years of which he has acted as financial secretary. The boys showed their appreciation of his services by turning out in force. After they had played a few tunes, they were invited by Mr. and Mrs. Davies to a repast, and several pleasant hours were spent.

Strawberries in October.

Strawberries and cream make a lovely dish when in season. October is not the time when this fruit is supposed to ripen in the open air, but Captain Wm. Gordon who rejoices in the possession of one of the best kept and most beautifully located gardens in Victoria, has at the present moment a quantity of ripe strawberries, white currants and walnuts. The strawberries have attained their largest summer size, and the other fruit is simply perfect in taste, size and richness. This feat on the part of Victoria's climate excels all her efforts at out-door grown roses at Christmas time.

$25 Reward

Great Reduction.

John McCallum, merchant tailor, is offering for the next 30 days, tweed suits $25 to $30, fine worsteds, $40 to $45, pants, $7 to $12. Call and examine my stock at 43 Broad street. *

Arrived O. K.

A fine stock of Razor Strops; a complete line of shaving materials, e c. Pocket Cutlery, Scissors, Table Cutlery direct from Sheffield, at Fox's, 78 Government street. Call and examine. *

Innes' Famous Band.

There was a large audience at the Victoria last evening to hear Innes' famous band, that appeared there for the first time. The programme from beginning to end was enthusiastically received by those present. Every member of the band is a thorough musician and every piece they played was good. Mr. Innes' trombone solo brought down the house. In response to the encore he gave a duet with first cornet. The piccolo solo of Signor Norrito and the cornet solo of Mr. B. C. Bent, also received well deserved encores. The band will give another concert this evening, with an entire change of programme.

The price of admission to-night for unreserved seats will be $1 for parquette and dress circle.

Disappointed His Constituents.

Evidently Col. Baker, M.P.P. for East Kootenay, is getting himself disliked by his constituents at Golden. Speaking of a promised speech from the Colonel, the Era says:—Once again Col. Baker, M.P.P., has disappointed his constituents here. He went to all the trouble to inform the Era that he would be here last night to address the electors, but at the last moment he fails to appear. Such conduct as this on the part of our member will not help to make him popular, as it is not the first time he has failed to turn up when expected, either through accident or design. Col. Baker ought to remember that people living at a distance do not like to be disappointed when they make a special effort to be here so as to hear him.

Cheap Fame.

George Harrison has achieved the distinction of being the first person to be summoned before the police magistrate on the charge of refusing to pay five cents as fare on the street cars. This morning George pleaded guilty to the charge, and was fined $2 and $2 costs, making 400 cents, which judiciously expended in car rides would have entitled him to the privilege of being whirled along Victoria's busy streets for 80 trips, which at an average of two miles a trip, would have made a distance of 160 miles, considerable further, by the way, than most transfer companies would carry him for the same money. However, he has gained fame, and at the comparatively cheap rate of $3.95.

A General Request.

One of those people who imagine that the postmastership has been created for the especial purpose of supplying information on all and sundry subjects, writes Postmaster Shakespeare as follows: "I want to get some information in regard to your city, climate, and so on. If you will kindly comply with this request, you will confer a favor upon me. First, how many people have you? Second, how many photographers have you? What are the names and addresses of them? Underline the name of the best. How much are they charging per dozen for cabinet photos? Thirdly, how much is board by the month? Fourthly, what kind of a climate have you up there?"

Perhaps the best photographer will supply the information as regards his line, and in doing so he might send the other matter as well. Postmaster Shakespeare's official functions do not include the supplying of miscellaneous information. The inquiry comes from Salinas City, Monterey County, Cal.

The Crematory System.

Mr. Andrew Eagle addressed the Mayor and Council this morning on the principle of crematories, and explained fully the working of them in different parts of the United States and Canada, as well as Mexico. He illustrated how the garbage could be disposed of without in the smallest particular being objectionable to any one. In fact he looked forward to the time when the large cities of the States, such as Chicago and New York will have forty or fifty crematories scattered throughout the city, in places where they will be most convenient for the purposes for which they are intended. Mr. Engle, by means of a burning piece of paper, illustrated very clearly how any objectional fumes could be destroyed. He invited the Council to visit Vancouver as soon as the crematory is in operation there, (which is expected to be within a week) and see for themselves how it works. A deputation is also coming from Minneapolis to see the crematory in operation.

Those Two Fires.

The hard things that have been written regarding the recent fires have touched the men of the department as a whole and at to-morrow's council meeting the officers and men have decided to request an investigation into both fires with a view to ascertaining whether there was any blame attaching to the department, its discipline or management. As regards the fire in the telephone office, it has been pronounced the quickest piece of work the department has done for some time; and the statement that the place was flooded by water is altogether untrue. It was extinguished with the chemical stream. Mr. McMicking, the manager, says the use of water inside the building where the fire was, would have been disastrous to the system. He commends the the department for the way in which they acted in using chemicals only in this case. As regards the Spencer fire, an investigation will prove the impartiality or otherwise of the anonymous censors of the department.

Adventures in Kootenay.

Prince Teano of Rome, whose father is Syndaco, or Lord Mayor of Rome, and who belongs to one of the most renowned families in Italy, is at the Palace. Since August 5th he has been hunting silver-tipped and wild goats in the scarcely known mountains of the Kootenai country in British Columbia and Northern Idaho. He is an old traveller in Nubia, the Sahara Desert and North Arabia. He had a rough time up north. He killed bear on the Hauser and Duncan rivers at the base of the Selkirks and travelled over glaciers on Kaslo river stalking white goats. With him was A. Dalton of Clarks Falls, Montana, an American trapper of forty years' experience, and F. Schiebler, a friend who is an old lion hunter. "I think that country the greatest one for big game and fascinating sport I ever saw," he said yesterday. "We got out of provisions in the mountains and had to live on goat tallow and meat without salt. That was pretty rough, combined with our rough mountain treatment and close batter with a grizzly, but we got through at length all right." Prince Teano has boxed up a lot of skins to take to Rome. He will leave on his return to-morrow. —San Francisco Examiner.

A Great Mineral Country.

Mr. Joshua Davies, who has just returned from the Kootenay country, states that there is no doubt but what that part of British Columbia is destined to be one of the greatest mining countries in the world. Ore is rich and plenty, but one of the greatest needs of the place are railroads, or that the bed of the Columbia be cleared so that navigation during low water would not be attended with so much danger and difficulty. The latter work, Mr. Davies thinks, could be done for $50,000, and the river could be made navigable at all times. The Great Northern Company have got their grading done past Bonner's Ferry, and will be through to Kootenay by next June. The Northern Pacific are surveying for a 32 mile spur to Bonner's Ferry to be completed next year, but much remains to be done before proper transit is provided. A road should be built from Fort Sheppard to Nelson, and then one of the richest mineral countries would be in direct rail communication with the great transcontinental lines. When this is done some notion of the mineral wealth of British Columbia will be given to the world. The Davies-Sayward Company are making preparations to handle their freight next year, and are building barges to use on the lake and river. Prospects are bright for a great deal of business next season.

The Lover's Lament.

Your face is like a drooping flower,
Sweetheart!
I see you fading, hour by hour,
Sweetheart!
Your rounded outlines waste away,
In vain I weep, in vain I pray,
What power Death's cruel hard can stay?
Sweetheart, Sweetheart!

Why, nothing but Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It imparts strength to the failing system, cures organic troubles, and for dibilitated and feeble women generally, is unequaled. It dispels melancholy and nervousness, and builds up both flesh and strength. Guaranteed to give satisfaction in every case, or money paid for it refunded.

JUDGE JAMES G. SWAN.

Comes Here by Invitation of Dr. Dawson—Points About Seals.

Judge James G. Swan, of Port Townsend, came over to this city yesterday in answer to a telegram from Dr. Dawson, of the British seal commission, and last evening in company with Capt. Chas. Spring, had a long conversation with Dr. Dawson on the habits of the coast and northern seals.

This is a subject the judge is perfectly familiar with, he having devoted nearly a lifetime to the study of natural history. In his interview with Dr. Dawson, the judge was met agreeably, and several of his theories were endorsed by the doctor, especially that one which shows that the coast seals have nothing in common with the Behring sea seals, and do not go to the rookeries on the Pribyloff islands, but drop their young on the Queen Charlotte islands and on beds of kelp.

To further bear out the judge's contention that young seals are born in this way, he states that Capt. Hooper, of the U.S.S. Corwin told him the other day that while north on their last trip the crew of the steamer saw an immense bed of kelp about 75 miles southwest of the Pribyloff Islands, and on this thousands of seals were congregated, among them vast numbers of pups, some of which were only a few hours old.

Dr. Dawson agrees with the judge that young seal can swim, and is also of the opinion that seals breed on the floating kelp masses. Capt. Spring also quoted an instance of having in 1888 seen a large kelp bed southwest of Kodiak Island also covered with seals, both old and young.

Judge Swan contends that the action of the United States Government has been unfair in this sealing business, but lays the blame largely on Prof. Elliott, who was in the Alaska Fur Company's interests, and who has for 20 years kept the United States Government misinformed on the question of seal life. The judge says the sea should be as free as air to the sealing schooners, but he thinks that the rookeries should be unmolested in any way.

In many other matters the judge showed his thorough knowledge of the subject, and Dr. Dawson was enabled to gather much valuable information which will be of great assistance to him in preparing the report which is to go a great way toward settling the sealing question.

Gale on the Atlantic.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—The Guion liner Alaska got into port this morning several days overdue. The Alaska during her passage encountered the worst gale she ever met with. During the hurricane the other day six cabin passengers were hurt, and the assistant purser fell and had two ribs and his right arm broken.

PERSONAL.

C. G. Rawlings, local manager for the Union Pacific Railway and steamship lines, returned from the Sound this morning.

Mr W. Templeman, editor and proprietor of the Victoria TIMES, is in the city, accompanied by Mrs. Templeman, having arrived from the West yesterday. Mr. Templeman has been living on the coast for several years, but this is his first trip over the C.P.R., and he is highly pleased with the comforts of the road as well as delighted with the scenic attractions of the route. Speaking matters in the British Columbia capital, Mr. Templeman stated to a reporter that the city is making very rapid and substantial progress. Quite a large amount of building has been done this year and the prospects for continued development are exceedingly bright. Referring to the sealing industry, Mr. Templeman said that nearly all the B. C. sealers had returned with good catches and will make a great deal of money, some of them realizing as much as $30,000. The price of seal skins has jumped up to $25 each, owing to the embargo placed on the Behring Sea rookeries. This price is double what was formerly obtained.—Winnipeg Free Press.

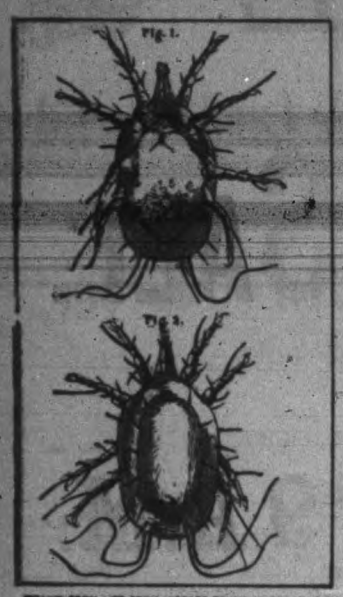
CHINESE - SUGARS; - WHAT - IT - IS - WE - MAY - BE - EATING!



DRAWN FROM LIFE FROM INSECTS FOUND IN GROCERY

In view of the introduction to the Province recently of considerable quantities of Chinese Sugars, it may be as well that the Public should be informed, on the very highest possible authority, of the danger that may be attendant upon their use.

Professor Cameron, Public Analyst, Dublin, a gentleman who has made it his special business to examine all kinds of Foreign Sugars, Refined and other, says that certain kinds of them should never be used. He states that they contain great numbers of DISGUSTING INSECTS, which produce a DISGUSTING DISEASE. Their shape is very accurately shown in the accompanying cut, which is magnified two hundred diameters. Figure 1 is the under side, and Figure 2 the upper. The Professor's description is as follows:—

"This insect ('the Acarus Sacchari') is a formidably organized, exceedingly lively, and decidedly ugly little animal. From its oval-shaped body stretches forth a proboscis terminating in a kind of scissors, with which it seizes its food. Its organs of locomotion consist of eight legs, each jointed and furnished at its extremity with a hook. In the Sugar its movements from one place to another are necessarily very slow, but when placed on a perfectly clean and dry surface, it moves along with great rapidity." He adds that the number of "Acari' found in Unrefined Sugar is "sometimes exceedingly great, and in no instance is the article quite free from either the insects or their eggs." He further says:—"The Acari Sacchari" do not occur in Refined Sugar of any quality, because they cannot pass through the charcoal filters of the Refinery, and because Refined Sugar does not contain any nitrogenous substance upon which they can feed."

COOLIE - MADE - AND - ALL - UNREFINED - SUGARS - SHOULD - NEVER - BE - USED!

Besides its being impossible for Canadian Labor to compete with Coolie Labor, rice fed and under paid, it is well known that Eastern Countries have always been the breeding ground for leprosy and all other loathsome and horrible human diseases, and hand labor there is so cheap that there is no inducement to employ machinery. Home Refined Sugar, on the contrary, is never touched by the human hand from the moment it reaches the refiner until it leaves him a perfectly safe and purified article.

☞ Use, therefore, Only Home Refined Sugars; They Are Absolutely Unadulterated, Pure and Cheap. ☜

HARD TIMES IN ENGLAND.

Pawnbrokers Doing a Rushing Trade Loaning on Family Jewels.

These are dark days in London, and prosperity is tumbling down stairs, writes a London correspondent of the New York Herald. All this week the pawnbrokers and dealers in second-hand jewels have had a harvest. London is bowing the knee to the god of the triple globes.

It is the result of the great Argentine financial thud that has shaken almost every fireside in England, directly or indirectly. One pawnbroker told me yesday that the wife of a well-known society man sold the diamonds out of her necklace, and had gold paste imitations put in their place. Antony has been bitten, but Cleopatra must shine. It won't do to let the world know what has happened. It is wonderful to see how many men are selling their horses and carriages because they have engagements abroad which cannot be avoided; which all goes to show that Mr. Lidderdale, governor of the bank of England, knew what he was talking about when he said that the blow from Argentina had bowed many thousands of backs instead of breaking a few.

The man who enjoys the excitement of speculation must not make faces when it tastes unwholesome. They told me the same story everywhere. It is not on the stock exchange alone that the grief of England is known—it is whispered in the dim, dirty money lender's lair. Hundreds of Americans are rummaging about the old shops picking up bargains. It is the best opportunity for years for amateurs.

"I tell you, sir," said a leading pawnbroker, "if the names that have been written on the books of the London pawnbrokers these last two months could be made public there would be a sensation. Lord! what fun there would be in the grand parlors, sir!"

Worthless checks are drifting like the autumn leaves in Shakespeare's land. Hard times have come unto England I fear they will last.

War Talk in Europe.

BERLIN, Oct. 10.—During the Emperor's presence in Frankfort, where he visited the electrical exhibition, an attempt was made to ascertain the imperial opinion in regard to the Russian loan. It is reported that his majesty frankly said: "The bankers can do as they please. My people understand that lending money to Russia means war on us." Nothing is now heard of the loan on the bourse. No German will invest in it.

The German war office has been informed of an important capture of a spy by the Austrian authorities. The man arrested at Ouzucala was discovered to be a French staff officer. Papers of a highly compromising character relating to the Prusso Austrian frontier were found on him.

VIENNA, Oct. 10.—The Minister of Finance to-day presented the Austrian budget for 1892. The expenditures are estimated at 584,620,379 florins, an increase of 19,167,851 over 1891. The receipts are estimated at 585,238,262 florins, an increase of 16,862,741 over 1891. Referring to the large military expenditures, the minister said that while the present political situation lasted the army would absorb a large portion of the revenue.

LONDON, Oct. 10.—The Standard publishes a communication in regard to the recent so called aggressive action of Russia in Pamir, which says: "It is high time for England to unsheath her sword in Asia. The Russian tide of conquest which has flowed steadily eastward for fifty years must be sent sweeping back to the Caspian. Russia has boldly pushed on until she now stands at the very outposts of India." The Standard, in an editorial commenting upon this communication, says it "has no liking for scares," and that its purpose is not to suggest alarm, but to enforce the necessity of firmness and vigilance, adding: "There is no question of hostilities, but if it were possible to conceive a struggle for supremacy in Asia it should be decided in Pamir. It would be an easy matter for our Indian authorities to pull down the eagle which, in ill-timed chauvinism a Cossack commander hoisted in the wilderness. The game of "bounce" has so far been played with success, but there is a limit beyond which it cannot be pushed. The signal for retreat should be given when the cabinet of St. James speaks clearly on the subject."

England Answers Turkey.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 12.—The British Ambassador has delivered to the Porte England's reply to the latter's note in regard to the recent passage through the Dardanelles of the vessels of the Russian volunteer fleet, and as to the action taken by the Sultan in the matter. England's answer enters into a full explanation of her position on the matter, and clearly defines the ground she takes.

Aunty's Advice.

THE EMPRESS OF INDIA

Arrives From the Orient Early This Morning -- Cargo and Passengers.

The C.P.R. royal mail steamship Empress of India arrived off the outer dock at 4.20 this morning, 12 days and five hours from Yokohama. The fog kept her back a day, otherwise the trip was an uneventful one. This is the India's third voyage across the Pacific. She had on board 38 cabin passengers, three, of whom landed here, and 154 Chinese passengers, 97 for Victoria. Her cargo was a full one, consisting of all kinds of Oriental merchandise.

The cabin passengers were: Mr. Louis Courtin, Mr. E. I. Crehore, Mr. C. N. Crosse, Mr. J. H. Curtis, Major and Mrs. Daniell and child, Mrs. Delany, Mr. S. Dexter, Dr. Adolphe Fritze, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Gillingham and child, Rev. E. C. and Mrs. Gorst and two children, Mr. T. G. Gowland, Mr. John A. Hay, Miss Holzmann, Mr. F. C. Hutchinson, Mr. Janssen, Miss Jervis, Mr. Kwok Ching, Mr. J. Lawson, Miss Lee, Mr. Peter Lee, Dr. J. Ross Murray, Mr. Nanson, Mr. and Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Ransom, Mr. and Mrs. J. Bradlee Smith and child, Mr. E. R. Smith, Mr. Von Waldthausen, Mr. E. W. Walker.

Port Angeles' Difficulty.

PORT ANGELES, Wash., Oct. 11.—The proceedings against this city were partly decided yesterday by Judge McClinton of the Superior Court, who holds that the annexation of the city limits was illegal. Excitement over the ruling is high and much fear is entertained by the holders of the city scrip issued since the annexation. Two weeks ago it was virtually decided in an argument on the proceedings to disincorporate. The city council had a test case made, taking the opposing attorneys by surprise, on the special grounds of annexation, and virtually confessed judgment, thinking the complaint in the original case of plaintiff would have to be amended. The decision also shuts out the voters on the reserve for the election in December next, who were almost unanimously opposed to the present council. Sentiment is about evenly divided for and against the action of the council. The new order of affairs will be quite a disappointment to some of the office-aspiring Republicans, who largely depended on the vote of the reserve people to land them in a city office.

United States Supreme Court.

WASHINGTON, D.C., Oct. 12.—The supreme court of the United States met for the October term to-day. Three justices were absent from court. Chief Justice Fuller is in Chicago, where his daughter is very ill. Justices Bradley and Gray have both been ill, but are now recovering. The business transacted was the admission of applicants to practice before the court and the announcement by Justice Field that the most important cases announced for argument next Monday are postponed until the second Monday in November. This step is taken for the reason that it is desired that they shall be heard by the full bench, and the probability is all the justices will not be present Monday next. The list includes the Sayward case, which involves the question of the jurisdiction of the United States in the seal fisheries in the Behring Sea, and the lottery cases, the elevator case and the cases involving the question of the constitutionality of the McKinley tariff act. The court adjourned a few minutes after 12 o'clock and went in a body to pay its respects to the president.

Earthquake in California.

PETALUMA, Cal., Oct. 12.—The heaviest earthquake shock since 1868 was experienced here last night. The shock was preceded by a light one, and after it came six or seven other shocks, the last one about 5 o'clock this morning. The main shock lasted fully nine seconds.

SANTA ROSA, Cal., Oct. 12.—The severest earthquake shock felt here in four years occurred last night at 10:32. Oscillations north and south lasted 45 seconds. A slight trembling was perceptible three or four minutes.

NAPA, Cal., Oct. 12.—The earthquake during last night set Napa into a fever of excitement. The first shock came at 9:16, but was light. At 10:29 came a heavy shock, which lasted 46 seconds. It was a twisting motion, from right to left. Many people ran into the street in fright, some fainted, and all were greatly exercised, but no fatalities are reported. Lighter shocks followed during the entire night. Some say there were twelve shocks, while others profess to have counted as high as seventeen. Some people remained in the street all night. The damage is not very heavy on any one building, but in the aggregate is considerable. Scores of chimneys are thrown down or turned three-fourths around. Many brick buildings are badly cracked, and wall decorations in most of the fine houses are badly damaged. The insane asylum reports some damage to walls and towers, but nothing serious.

Rolled Down an Embankment.

COLFAX, Cal., Oct. 12.—The west bound fast mail on the Central Pacific left the track three miles west of Colfax at 2 o'clock this morning. The wires are down and the extent of the damage is at present unknown. The train consisted of four sleeping cars, one baggage and two mail cars. One sleeper broke from the train and rolled down an embankment about fifty feet. The porter of this car was badly injured. The train had about eighty passengers, many of whom were scratched and bruised, but no fatalities are thus far reported. The cause of the accident is unknown.

Dyspepsia

Intense Suffering for 8 years—Restored to Perfect Health.

Few people have suffered more severely from dyspepsia than Mr. E. A. McMahon, a well known grocer of Staunton, Va. He says: "Before 1878 I was in excellent health, weighing over 200 pounds. In that year an ailment developed into acute dyspepsia, and soon I was reduced to 162 pounds, suffering burning sensations in the stomach, palpitation of the heart, nausea, and indigestion. I could not sleep, lost all heart in my work, had fits of melancholia, and for days at a time I would have welcomed death. I became morose, sullen and irritable, and for eight years life was a burden. I tried many physicians and many remedies. One day a workman employed by me suggested that I take Hood's Sarsaparilla, as cured his wife of dyspepsia. I did so, and before taking the whole of a bottle I began to feel like a new man. The terrible pains to which I had been subjected, ceased, the palpitation of the heart subsided, my stomach became easier, nausea disappeared, and my entire system began to tone up. With returning strength came activity of mind and body. Before the fifth bottle was taken I had regained my former weight and natural condition. I am today well and I ascribe it to taking Hood's Sarsaparilla."

N. B. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to buy any other.

THE OAR.

O'CONNOR AND STANBURY.

The Seattle Press-Times of yesterday said: The champion oarsman O'Connor left Seattle by the 9.30 train this morning for San Francisco, having returned from Victoria yesterday by the Olympian. He has changed his plans in consequence of receiving a cablegram in Victoria from Stanbury, the Australian champion, who is now on his way to this country to make a match with O'Connor for the championship of the world.

The cablegram stated that Stanbury and Beach, the ex-champion, had started for this country with the intention of meeting O'Connor. The latter is more than willing to try conclusions with the Cornstalk, and has every confidence in his ability to beat him. The last time they met—which was in Australia—Stanbury won by a short length in a very close race, and O'Connor was handicapped by the climate and the unfamiliar water. This time it will be "a fair shake," and the best man will be the winner.

O'Connor said to a Press-Times reporter this morning: "I am very well pleased to get this race. Judging from what I have seen of the other Australians here, I should judge that Stanbury will have to be just about one-and-a-half times a better man than he is to beat Hanlan or myself. My race with him in Australia was no test of our merits. I was certainly not in proper condition when I rowed in that race. Neither was Hanlan when he rowed for the championship in that country.

"There will be three races if we can arrange for them. I will row Stanbury for the championship of the world. I and Hanlan will row in a double scull race against Stanbury and any other man whom he may select for the championship of the world, and Hanlan will give Stanbury's rowing mate a single scull race. Each event will be for $5000 a side.

"If the Australian is willing to row right away—that is to say, as soon as he can get into condition, the race will probably take place on the Oakland course. I am not particular myself where it shall come off as long as it takes place in America. I should prefer to have it on Lake Washington if it could be so arranged, for I think it an ideal race course, and it would be a great thing for the city to have the first race ever rowed for the world's championship in American waters come off on your beautiful lake. I admit that I have a prejudice in favor of lake waters to row in, where there is neither tide nor current and where a man gets fair play to show what he can do.

"I am after the championship and not what I can make out of the race, and it will go mighty hard with me if I don't fetch it this trip. Make a note of that."

"There is one good stipulation which I hope will be insisted on, and that is that no steamer be allowed to traverse the course for one hour during the time of the race. This rule is in force both in Australia and England, and I do not see why the same rule ought not to be enforced here."

HANLAN AND M'LEAN.

NEW WESTMINSTER, Oct. 13.—McLean has not posted his stake money yet, though Hanlan's is all up. McLean says the race is to take place at Vancouver on Saturday. That city has posted $500 bait. McLean says he never was in better condition, and feels full of confidence that he will rake in the purse. He is being heavily backed here. One length's start to Mac makes a difference.

THE TURF.

THE RECENT TROT MEETING.

The Jockey Club met the other evening and considered the protests at the recent fall meeting. After discussion they were referred to the National Trotting Association for settlement. It is likely that Harry Stone will be exonerated from the accusation of pulling the pacing mare Rosie C corruptly, as it was only too evident that he held her simply in order to get her down to her pace after she had broken. Harry's good record, together with the circumstances of the case, stands largely in his favor.

Robert Bonner is confident that his wonderful mare, Nancy Hanks, which holds a record of 2:09, will yet wrest the title of queen of the turf from Maud S. and smash that favorite's record of 2:08¾. He declares that Sunol, his other great horse, is the greatest trotter on the track to-day.

The yearling record which was lowered from 2:31½ to 2:26½ by California horses has been brought still lower by Leland Stanford's Arion who made it in 2:15¾.

LACROSSE.

THE MAINLAND RIVALS.

NEW WESTMINSTER, Oct. 13.—Nothing has been decided re the final championship lacrosse match. The Vancouvers are very anxious to have it over there, but the Westminsters think the rule of the association should should be adhered to and the match played on neutral ground. There is strong probability of it being played in Victoria. The Vancouver men are telephoning over here this morning, promising to treat the Westminsters like white men.

BASEBALL.

The Portland team champions for 1891 of the Pacific Northwest League will go to California for the winter. If they hold their own with the Golden State teams a Pacific coast league will be formed. They will play exhibition games in the Sound cities before going south.

FOOTBALL.

BEATEN AT BURY.

TORONTO, Oct. 12.—A cablegram says that the Canadian-American football team played at Bury, in Lancashire, on Saturday, and though they had much the best of the play were defeated by two goals to one.

THEY ARE CALLED DECEIVERS!

Some Lack Courage!

LET OUR PEOPLE KNOW THE TRUTH!

I Often Recommend It!

By special request we abstain from giving the name of a well-known Canadian doctor, who was lately interviewed regarding Paine's Celery Compound. He said:—"I am aware that your remedy is very popular with our Canadian people; indeed I often recommend it in cases of nervousness, dyspepsia and indigestion. Knowing well the properties of the various ingredients of which it is composed, I can speak confidently of its merits and powers. Physicians who speak against it know nothing of its worth, and deceive when they decry its value. Of course some doctors have, not the courage of their convictions, and will not speak of it, as they are afraid of being ostracised by the profession.

I honestly think we physicians should at all times speak truthfully to our people, regardless of opinion. Be assured I will always say a word in favor of Paine's Celery Compound, as it is the only reliable preparation I know of for the weak, nervous, sleepless and dyspeptic. I have been prescribing it for over a year with success."

"A THING OF BEAUTY is a joy forever" accurately describes hall and lowe's beautifully finished cabinet portraits.
